Acknowledgment that I am a Practicing Catholic

A practicing Catholic is a person who is in good standing with the Church and lives in accord with the teachings of Christ and the Church. The following list provides essential components of the practice of the faith:

- He/she participates in the sacraments of the Church:
 - is fully initiated, i.e., has been baptized, confirmed (if of age), and admitted to Holy Communion;
 - participates in Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation;
 - celebrates the Sacrament of Penance as needed, and not infrequently.
- He/she is a member of a Catholic parish and supports the parish with time, talent and treasure, according to his/her ability.
- If married, he/she is in a marriage in accord with the laws of the Church, and is committed to raising children in the practice of the faith.
- If not married, he/she is living a life in conformity with the single state i.e., not cohabitating or living in a publically known immoral situation.
- He/she is in agreement with and willing to impart the teachings of the Catholic Church as taught by the Church's magisterium;
- He/she will lead by example, encourage students to learn and practice the faith by word and deed.
- He/she lives a life free of scandal, and is not bound by any ecclesiastical penalty.
